

INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL

University of Arkansas– Fort Smith | Office Of International Relations

Why Participate?

UAFS successfully hold International Festival every year. On November 20, 2014, UAFS will hold its 8th annual International Festival with 30 countries coming together in one place to guide you on a wonderful travel around the world with deeper cultural perspectives of them. You will be delighted about their sights, their meals, their customs, and much more. Also, you can enjoy several international games, performances from the diverse UAFS associations. The festival was developed to educate the campus and community about cultural diversity through dance, music, and informational booths from different countries. The amazing entertainment and food at the festival would be a great decision to join us. This is a chance to see and meet the people of our area and the world. All are welcomed to attend this wonderful family event.

Date: November 20, 2014

Time: 10:30a-1:30pm
