FALL FESTIVAL

University of Arkansas Fort Smith | Office of International Relations

Why Participate?

Central Church hosts a Fall Festival every October. This event allows international students to experience the celebration of Fall. During this time, many American families and students on campus gather together and do many fun events. Some events include pumpkin carving, games, and other fun activities. This is a great opportunity for international students to continue to build friendships with American families and students on campus.

Date: Sunday, November 1, 2015

Time: 2-6 pm

Admission: Free

Location to meet: Central Christian Church

" Food was good. The weather was great. Overall, it was an enjoyable event for all students."

-Jack Bui

How can you be part of Fall Festival?

Fall Festival takes place every year in October. Any international student who is interested in this event should come to the Office of International Relations (OIR) located in the Vines building, Room 104 to sign up on the Fall Festival sign up sheet. Also stay connected on the International Student UAFS Facebook page, as this will provide you more information about the event as the time approaches. For more information about Fall Festival, please contact OIR.
